[5:59 AM, 11/12/2018] Alaa
B.S. Fatally: I am reminding

you this is a technical,
professional question!

Thanks Akesh that is funny!

Is it ok if I conclude on the topic of Gavin.

I am his friend and friend always warn you if you are going to walk on a cobra so that you do not get a snake bite, but you enemy would love to get you injured.

There is a reason why I am making this comment. I was in Batch F[IV]E with Gavin in Nursing school a few years back. I wrote this observation in my school book when I saw Gavin got his right hand too close to the intimate parts of a female student who was resting in class, she reactively sat up and was shocked.

It was all forgotten.

But when I met Gavin here in class, we noticed that he does touch in other ways any other girls in class, not Sneha, not Gita, not Miridu, not Tasha, not Keswaree, not Princha except Hajra and when Hajra was absent he did that Subaylah.

These two are of a different culture. Cultural is a corner stone of Modern Nursing.

As you are probably aware I am a registered psychiatric and general nurse with the nursing council. My question is: is Gavin targeting these two or does he have a relationship problem with girls of his own culture.

A graver question arises. Gavin would likely hold an important professional position in the future could this behavior get him in trouble.

Recently on the Express newspaper a mauritian magistrate arrange to have a meeting with a women on whose case he was ruling. She reported him and the magistrate was removed from the Bar.

As everyone knows Monica Lewinsky reported Bill Clinton who lost his presidency.

Lets Observe Gavin at Princha's Wedding and the next time he is in class with us.

Good Bye! 😈
